

2020 FUTURE LEGACY

— Statewide Farm Credit —

YOUNG & BEGINNING FARMER CONFERENCE

Network with fellow young farmers from across Arkansas at this FREE two-day learning event!

February 25th – 26th
Wyndham Riverfront, North Little Rock

Featured Speaker

Dr. David Kohl, nationally known as an engaging and entertaining speaker on topics related to young, beginning farmers, will offer insight into young farmer success.

- Top 12 practices of successful producers
- 2020-2030 Megatrends
- Position for success in a cyclical economy
- Breakout sessions to talk shop with farmers you have most in common with

Designed For...

- Ages 18-40, any farming experience welcome
- Any size farming operation
- Both full-time and part-time farmers
- Couples are invited to attend together
- Open to Farm Credit customers and non-customers alike

Why Attend?

- Unprecedented access to tenured credit staff – a valuable opportunity to ask questions!
- Farm-to-table dinner at a local winery on Tuesday evening.
- It's FREE! The conference (including one night's hotel stay and all meals) are compliments of Farm Credit!

Register now! Attendance is limited.

Complete the short application form online at www.myaglender.com by DECEMBER 1, 2019. Participants will receive verification of conference attendance by mid-December.

Call Jill Robertson at 479.968.1434, ext. 5106 for additional information. Prior conference participants are welcome to attend, again.

FARM CREDIT
COOPERATIVES OF ARKANSAS